HPV Vaccination

Let's get vaccines
to increase immunity from exposure

Stay safe and Healthily

On the 21st of July, our school community took a significant step in preventive healthcare by hosting an informative awareness session and HPV vaccination drive. Aimed at students in Classes 7 to 10, the initiative specifically targeted eligible 14- and 15-year-olds to protect them against the Human Papillomavirus.

This successful event was a joint effort arranged by the Red Cross Society and the local Block Development Office. We were honored to welcome a distinguished panel of resource persons, including Dr. Masiur Rahaman, Dr. Sakirul Islam (Block Development Officer), Dr. S.M. Maidul Islam, and Dr. Abdul Rashid Mia (BDO Representative Officer). Their expertise guided the students through the importance of immunization, which was smoothly followed by the administration of the vaccine to eligible students.

Parent-Teacher Meeting & Book Fair

On 25th July, the school organized two key events side-by-side to foster academic growth and a love for reading:

Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM): Facilitated direct dialogue between parents and teachers to evaluate individual academic performance, discuss areas for growth, and align learning goals.

Scholastic India Book Fair: Held concurrently, offering students direct access to a wide selection of books to encourage reading habits and literary exploration.

By hosting both events on the same day, the school created an integrated environment supporting both academic progress and personal enrichment.

INTER-HOUSE INDEPENDENCE DAY DRAMA COMPETITION

On 5th August, the school organized an Inter-House Independence Day Drama Competition. Students from all four houses enthusiastically participated in the event. The competition aimed to develop patriotism, creativity, confidence, teamwork, and stage performance skills among the students. Each house presented a meaningful drama based on the spirit of India's Independence. The students showcased their acting talents through well-prepared dialogues, costumes, and performances. The dramas highlighted the sacrifices of freedom fighters and the importance of unity, courage, and love for the nation. The event created a patriotic atmosphere throughout the school. Students performed with great enthusiasm and confidence.

Teachers guided and encouraged the participants in their preparations. The audience appreciated the efforts and performances of all four houses. The competition provided students with an opportunity to express their talents and learn important values through drama.

Overall, the programme was successfully conducted and became a memorable part of the school's Independence Day celebrations.
